O. FIBELD.

OUR CREAMERY.

Stock is Having a Ready Sale.

The stock of the Moose Jaw Creamery is meeting with a sale beyond the expectations of even the most sanguine of the promoters of the scheme. Out of the possible two hundred and fifty shares, one hundred and eighty-three have already been subscribed and this is only a partial canvass.

The following provincial officers have been appointed: President, Henry Battell; Provincial Board of directors, R. K. Thompson, H. Dorrell, H. McDougall, J. E. Annable, Wm. Watson, E. N. Hopkins, James Campbell, H. U. Robinson, E. Colpitt, Jos. Battell; Provincial Secretary J. E. Annable; Provincial Treas., H. McDougall.

It is expected that the first move on the part of the provisional directors will be to increase the number of shares. Already nearly all the cows in the town have been promised and it is expected that at the meeting of the Agricultural Society tomorrow the required number of cows will be made up.

The enterprise is one that should elicit the hearty support of every one; and it may be hoped, that from the personnel of the officers and directors mentioned above that no pains will be spared to make the Moose Jaw Creamery a decided success.

APPALLING DISASTER.

Terrible Consequences of a Railway Accident.

St. Louis, Mo. Jan. 22.—A wreck which in its consequence is one of the most appalling and disastrous that has been recorded in years, occurred at Wann Junction, or Alton Junction Ills., yesterday morning. The C.C.C. & St. L. western limited passenger train consisting of an engine and five coaches, which left here in the morning for the east, ran into a switch half a mile north of Wann Junction, and crashed into a train consisting of seven tank cars standing thereon. The result was a fire and afterwards an explosion which has already cost six persons their lives, fatally injuring nineteen others, while fifty are suffering from painful burns. All the dead were burned to death by flaming oil; of the fatally injured all are more or less seriously burned about the limbs and body, but the worst injuries sustained are fearfully burned heads and faces. Many are injured internally from inhaling the burning fumes which scorching and parched their throats to such an extent that their escape from instant death is almost impossible.

A Notary Arrested on the Charge of Defrauding the Government.

MONTREAL, Jan. 24.—A great sensation was caused in legal circles by the arrest of a well-known notary on a charge of defrauding the provincial government. For some time the treasury department noted a great decrease in the revenue derived from the sale of law stamps. The cause could not be ascertained. Finally the matter was put into the hands of detectives, who discovered that large quantities of stamps were being cleaned and used a second time. Last night they arrested Odilon Crepeaud, notary and commissioner, in connection with the matter, and found in his office $180 worth of new stamps and $80 worth of clean ones. He was taken before Judge Dugas, who refused bail and ordered him to be imprisoned until the trial.

A Territorial Exhibit.

Senator Parley, who has received the appointment as the World's Fair commissioner from the Territories, has returned from Ottawa, where he was to confer with the Dominion authorities as to the exhibits to be sent from the western territories. In conversation with a reporter the senator said the Territories will send samples of their coal from the various districts, grains, grasses and vegetables, and also an educational exhibit that will knock the spots off anything hitherto exhibited on the continent.

TRADE FIGURES FOR 1892.

Exports and Imports Show Expansion—Trade With Great Britain Increased.

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The Dominion tables of trade and navigation for the year, ending June 30, 1892, are distributed. The total exports for the year were $113,963,373, which is $11,826,172 more than the highest previous year (1883) and $11,150,430 more than the average of the last five years.

The value of goods for consumption imported was $116,678,943, an increase of $1,633,819 over last year, and $8,124,507 more than the average for the last five years. The duty collected was $20,550,501.53, a reduction of $2,330,487.50 from the previous year, and being $2,841,268.03 less than the average duty collected for the last five years.

The trade with Great Britain increased $14,528,600 over last year, and $19,782,461 more than the average of the last five years; while trade with the United States decreased $2,086,753, but still showed an increase of $1,023,368 over the average of the last five years. The following comparison of the total trade by countries for the last two years are given:

	1891.	1892.

Annexation Sentiment.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—In an interview today Mr. Charles Tupper, Canadian minister of Marine and Fisheries, who is on his way to France to attend the Behring sea arbitration conference said he did not think there was much of a sentiment among the masses of the Canadians in favor of annexation to the U.S. It was a subject which was discussed by a few public men only, and could not be said to enter very largely into the thoughts of the masses. There were but three men of prominence in the Dominion, Mr. Tupper declared, who openly advocated annexation. One was a former official named Myers, who had been retired from office, in part, as a consequence of his views as an annexationist. Another was an editor named Farrar, who had been outspoken through the columns of his paper, but who has not won many converts, and the third was Prof. Goldwin Smith. "Whatever influence Mr. Smith might have as a scholar, and however much his learning might be respected, he had no strength as a leader in politics," Mr. Tupper said, "and could not control any votes if he were to become a candidate for any office."

LIQUORS AND TOBACCO.

The Annual Report of the Department of Canadian Inland Revenue.

The annual report of the department of inland revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30th, has been received. From the report of Commissioner Mill it appears that the total revenue for the year was $8,074,394, an increase of $1,171,521, over last year. The quantity of spirits produced during the year was 53,438, 232 proof gallons as compared with 4,397,394 proof gallons in the previous fiscal year. The quantity entered for consumption was 2,443,935 proof gallons, as compared with 2,487,544 in the previous year.

The quantity of malt taken for consumption was 45,435,582 pounds, which was nearly five million pounds less than last year, and six millions and a half below the average of the last five years.

The quantity of tobacco taken for consumption was 2,392,186 pounds, which is 129,343 pounds over the average of the last five years. The quantity of cigars manufactured during the year was 107,337,411, and entered for consumption 154,588,701, which is about three millions over last year, and 3,453,297 over the average of the last five years. The quantity of duty-paid spirits manufactured during the year was 129,717, of which 137,865 were sold.

The annual consumption of spirits per head of population continues to show a decrease, the quantity for 1892 being 7.01 gallons as compared with 7.45 gallons in 1891 and 8.33 in 1890. Beer also shows a reduction from 1891 the figures being 35.13 gallons and 37.90 gallons respectively. The consumption of wine has declined from 1.11 in 1891 to 1.01 in 1892. The consumption of cigarettes is on the increase, the total quantity taken, ex-warehouse and ex-factories, having risen from 28,990,440 in 1890, and 34,946,800 in 1891, to 40,147,300 in 1892 an increase of 11,156,500, or nearly 40 per cent. in the consumption of cigarettes in two years.

Trade with the U.S.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—The blue book of Canada's foreign commerce just issued shows that during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1892, Canada imported over $53,000,000 worth of goods from the United States, chiefly manufactures and raw material and exported to the United States $39,000,000. These returns show that the extra import duty on sugar of five per cent imposed only when imported from the United States, was collected on 18,000,000 pounds of sugar last year. This is the discriminating duty which President Harrison's recent message was the means of abolishing. The discriminating duty on tea and coffee purchased in the States remains. The net increase of Canadian trade last year was $18,744,000. The exports to the States declined $2,140,884 and to England increased $18,640,000. The import trade last year from England and the United States was about stationary.

A Policeman Murdered.

CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—Policeman Rankin was shot and killed, and his assistant, Dugan, was fatally wounded to-day by Geo. P. Freeman, colored; whom they were attempting to arrest on a charge of seducing a white girl, under fourteen years of age. A posse of special constables are on their way to the scene of the murder.

Our Next Governor.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—It is stated that the Earl of Aberdeen will succeed to the governorship of Canada next June.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The Old Council Give Place to the New—The Standing Committees.

Minutes of regular meeting of Moose Jaw Town Council, held on Jan. 16th. Present:—Mayor Rorison, Councillors Bellamy, Davidson, Fysh and Neeland.

After reading of minutes Coun. Fysh moved, seconded by Coun. Neeland: "That the thanks of this council are hereby rendered Mayor Rorison for the impartial and gentlemanly manner in which he has presided over the council during the past year."

The motion was carried unanimously. Mayor Rorison thanked the councillors for their appreciation of his services.

The Council of 1893 then took their seats. Present Mayor Grayson and all the councillors.

An application for the position of Town Clerk was received from J. E. Annabie and for the combined position of clerk and solicitor from W. J. Nelson.

Fysh, Neeland—That appointment of town clerk made by last council be confirmed. Carried.

The special committee appointed to strike the standing committees reported as follows:—

Finance and Assessment:—Neeland, Simington and Stunt.

Board of Works:—Fysh, Simington and Hannah.

Fire, Water and Light:—Stunt, Ferguson and Fysh.

License and Police:—Hannah, Ferguson and Neeland.

Health and Relief:—Simington, Stunt and Hannah.

Markets and Streets:—Ferguson, Fysh and Neeland.

Communications were read as follows:—From Lafferty & Moore re taxes (referred to Town Solicitor); from R. F. Chisholm re refund of license (request not granted); from Martin, Burns and others re Geo. Waterfield (referred to mayor).

The following motions were then carried: authorizing the payment of $500 to the school board; allowing N. F. Davis, M.P., the privilege of addressing his constituents in town hall; extending time of return of collectors roll to Feb. 1st; fixing every alternate Monday night for regular meetings; calling for all papers or bylaws re opening up streets or lanes to be laid on table at next meeting; granting leave to Seymour Green, J.P. to use town hall for court on Jan. 17th. The Mayor then left the chair.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Secretary of Agriculture for the United States speaks of the condition of the American farmer in these words:

"He is going from bad to worse, and every effort to extricate himself by that means sinks him deeper in the mire of failure. The only proper course lies in a reduction of acreage and production to meet the demand of domestic consumption and a normal requirement for exportation. The conditions which have at last overwhelmed cotton growers now threaten wheat growers, and unless there is a speedy reduction by choice there will be a further parallel in a reduction by force of circumstances."

The government intends holding cabinet meetings almost every day until the meeting of parliament on the 26th inst. In past years the complaint was pretty general that when the House met there was little for it to do during the first two weeks, owing to the government not being ready with their measures, many of which not infrequently were left until the last days of the session. This year the government is anxious to lay upon the table of the House a copy of the estimates on the first day of the meeting of parliament. Usually this was not done until about a couple of weeks after the opening. Once the estimates are down there can be no lack of work.

In Montaigne's eyes the object of education is to form a boy's character and prepare him for life, and to fill him not so much with learning, as with an honest curiosity for information about everything. This sounds perhaps obvious and commonplace, but the seed which Montaigne sowed three centuries ago has, it must be confessed, fallen too often on stony ground. There are a large number of persons concerned with education at the present day who, if they have equipped a boy with a sufficient stock of learning to enable him to pass an examination, fold their hands and think that they have done all that is needful. Here are two aphorisms which Montaigne has left to us: "Every abridgement of a good book is a foolish abridgement"; and, "Learning in one man's hand is a sceptre, and in another's a burden."

ago has, it must be confessed, fallen too often on stony ground. There are a large number of persons concerned with education at the present day who, if they have equipped a boy with a sufficient stock of learning to enable him to pass an examination, fold their hands and think that they have done all that is needful. Here are two aphorisms which Montaigne has left to us: "Every abridgement of a good book is a foolish abridgement"; and, "Learning in one man's hand is a sceptre, and in another's a burden."

Dr. G. S. Ryerson in a letter to the Washington Post says:

"Annexation of British North America to the United States is an 'eventual impossibility' for reasons which are: First, sentimental—that is national sentiment; second, commercial. In considering the reasons of sentiment, one must bear in mind that our heroes are not ours; that we have learned to regret events that you esteem, that to become American citizens we have to wipe out a part of which we are proud and adopt a history in which we have no part.

The business reasons against annexation are that it would ruin our infant manufactures, would embarrass our wholesale trade, and would so completely upset our commercial system that chaos would reign for years thereafter. The long and short of the whole matter is—the Canadian people do not desire annexation, and any attempt to force it on them will be met by armed resistance."

When You Write to The Editor.

If your communication refers to something already published don't bother to mention that fact; just give the additional news and let the editor write the introductory sentence or so explaining what you are talking about. He has the files handy, and likes to search through them for day and date. If you want to use a word you don't know how to spell there is little use hunting it up in a dictionary; spell it in Artemus Ward style and put quotation marks on it. That will look as if you were joking and editors love that kind of a funny man.

As for grammar, why worry about that? Grammarians differ so among themselves that the editor will probably disagree with you anyway. So let him attend to the grammar; he has loads of time.

Make each sentence as long and as much involved as possible. Then if you decide toward the latter end of one to change the construction and end the sentence somewhat different from your original intention, do so without hesitation, and don't waste time making the first part of the sentence conform with the last; the editor can easily see what you are driving at and alter it at his leisure, of which he has so much more than you.

With regard to punctuation, do it profusely or not at all. In the former case the editor can amuse himself scratching out the superfluous marks, and in the latter will find gymnastics for his mind in determining where your phrases connect. He needs something like this to keep him from sleeping at his desk.

Be sure to write on both sides of the paper.

Don't write legibly, or the editor will take you for a mere beginner, a man of little importance. Illegibility in their handwriting is assiduously preserved by some of the most distinguished men.

If you observe these rules carefully, whenever the editor finds a letter from you lying on the table, he will drop all other business in order to get at it, that he may puzzle out its meaning and prepare it for the compositor at once.

The Alaska Boundary Commission.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—The Dominion Government will dispatch a survey party, in charge of Professor King, of the interior department, to go to the west in April to make a preliminary survey of the boundary line between Alaska and British Columbia. The United States Government will dispatch a similar party at the same time. Afterwards, an international conference will be held to determine the location of the boundary. A compromise will probably be effected, as the treaty defining the frontier cannot be carried out. The treaty provides that the

QUESTIONS OF ETIQUETTE.

EDITOR TIMES

Dear Sir,
Does an invitation, say to a ball or a dancing party, always require an answer? What is the best form for an answer? What does R. S. V. P. stand for?

Yours truly
ANXIOUS ENQUIRER.

(1) Invariably. Send either your "regrets" or your "acceptance." To neglect to do so is inexcusable.

(2) There are several forms. The following may be used:

Mr. and Mrs. Brown present their compliments to ——— and accept with pleasure their kind invitation for Wednesday evening, December 8th.

or
Mr. and Mrs. Brown regret being unable to accept the kind invitation of ——— for Wednesday evening Dec. 8th.

(3) The letters in question stand for the French sentence, Repondez s'il vous plait, (Answer, if you please.)

CARNEL CHIRPINGS.

Mr. Robt Parsons has purchased a fine team so as to be ready to commence operations early in the spring.

The trustees are about forwarding a petition to the ratepayers, in regard to assessing the district according to the new amendments of the School Act.

Mr. Thomas Webb had a narrow escape being crushed by his horses recently.

Mr. Edward Eaton has taken up his winter quarters on his homestead. Ed. says "There is no place like Home."

Another Man from Hamilton.

"Yes, Sir," he said, as he lighted another cigar, "I have led an eventful life. I have climbed Mount Blanc without a guide, been shipwrecked in the middle of the Pacific ocean, swam the tangles with a dagger in my hand to keep off the crocodiles."

"When did you get in from Hamilton?" interrupted the weary-looking man with his feet on the heater.

Macdonald's First Nominations.

Macdonald, N.W.T., Jan. 22.—The municipal nominations took place here to-day with the following result: Mayor—John Comdry, banker, and W. A. Bloodell, formerly of Winnipeg; councillors, the entire voters' list, with the above two exceptions. The Contest for the majority is keen, as is also the contest for councillors.

FARMERS!

If you will allow us to drop a suggestion here, we would advise that you put your horses through a thorough course of preparation for the spring work.

Perhaps the Influenza has not developed in your particular case, but there are very few horses that have escaped this winter. It may drop around your way yet, and a good recovery is scarcely possible before spring. Ward it off by toning up. If you have a condition powder that has served you well in the past, by all means use it, and we will be pleased to prepare it for you accurately and with absolutely PURE DRUGS. If you are looking for something good in that line we have it. To those whose horses have been "under the weather," we can only say, make the best use of your time.

Sheriff Campbell of Macleod, Alta., was a passenger on Tuesday's delayed No. 2. He was in charge of three prisoners, two of whom were en-route for Stony Mountain, to serve a term for horsestealing. The other's destination was Regina Jail.

The letter published in last week's Times on the subject of "Town Sidewalks," has been productive of lasting good. Citizens who have never been known to work in such a capacity before, have been seen, with their coats off, shovelling for dear life. The town Inspector is also taking a hand in the good work. "Keep Shooting!"

Another carnival in the near future.

There is "war and rumors of war" in legal haunts these days.

Possibilities of Spelling.

If an S and an I and an O and a U With an X at the end, spell Su,

And an E and a Y and an E spell I, Pray what is a speller to do?

Then, if also an S and an I and a G, And an H, E, D, spell Cide,

There's nothing left for a speller to do But to go and commit Sicuzegished.

Thompson Defended.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—La Minerve, a French Conservative organ, publishes a long reply to the recent charges of La Patrie against Sir John Thompson. The article defends the premier against the charge of being hostile to French Canadians and gives the names of a number of Acadians and French Canadians appointed by him to prominent public positions to show that he is anything but that. As to the assertion that of the twelve or fifteen hundred public officials in Ottawa not a hundred are French Canadians, the writer says there are over one hundred and twenty officials of French Canadian origin on the civil list, supernumeraries not included, and further that fifty others have for the most part important position in both Senate and House of Commons.

The Panama Scandal.

New York, Jan. 23.—The New York Herald publishes the following from its correspondent at Terre Haute, Ind.: "I had a two hours conversation with ex-Secretary of Navy Thompson, late American president of the Panama Canal company. Colonel Thompson talked freely and unreservedly on the subject of American branch of the Panama company." At the outset he said: "I would gladly give you any information in my power that would throw light on the affairs of the Panama company and particularly any light that might disclose bribery or corruption in any form in the American branch, but I must say that if bribery occurred I am not aware of it and do not think there was an American in the American branch. I am at a loss to know where to start to investigate alleged bribery in this country."

C. P. R. Traffic Receipts.

MONTREAL, Jan. 24.—The C. P. R. traffic receipts for the week ending January 21st were $324,000; for the same week last year they were $347,000.

Surrounding Notes.

Largetta, one of Allan Cavan's celebrated horses, landed an eight to one trick in the mud in New Orleans the other day, beating a good field of Western crackers. We expect to see lots of New Orleans species around the Dining Hall next spring.

Short and Decisive.

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—It is reported that Sir John Thompson will leave early in the session for Paris in connection with the Deling Sea arbitration. He has issued the usual circular to his supporters, asking them to be here early and make the session short and decisive.

Gold ore Exhibits.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Samples of gold ore taken from the Macnora mines, Hastings County, will be exhibited at the World's Fair, and the owners of the mine expect great results to follow when the richness of the ore from the Canadian mines becomes known in this way. Mr. Crawford has purchased the mines from F. R. Lingham, of Belleville.

Bishop Anson's Successor.

Bishop Anson, late of Qu'Appelle, is expected to return to England this week, having been throughout the United States on a visit to two nephews in Texas. His successor is probably to be consecrated on St. Matthias day, on 24th of February, but does not contemplate starting for his diocese before Easter.
